

Junior Company and Senior Company Auditions

For those students who are interested in joining our Junior and Senior Companies this year, we will be holding auditions on Sunday, August 22, 2010 from 2:30-3:45. The audition will be a modern class taught by Ms. Marissa. Dancers should come dressed appropriately for the audition in a leotard and tights and their hair pulled back in a pony tail or bun. No jewelry, t-shirts or shorts will be permitted.

Dancers will be evaluated on the following:

I. Audition appearance (15%)

Appropriate attire and hair

Class room focus (not talking, leaning on the barres, etc.)

II. Performance quality and presence (40%)

Ability to attain the specific qualities of movement described by instructor

Ability to take and apply corrections

Ability to pick up the movement and combinations quickly and remember them

Ability to perform with the music, perform with confidence and display a commitment to performance quality

III. Technical Skill (30%)

Alignment

Strength and flexibility

Center strength and control

IV. Teacher evaluation (15%)

Observation of class room attitude, level of focus and effort, etc.

We will notify all dancers by email whether they have been accepted into the companies. We hope that our older dancers are interested in auditioning for our companies. All company members are required to take two ballet classes and one modern class. Please contact me for more information about the audition. For more information about our companies, please go to kineticsdance.org and click on "Companies."
